

MABEL BRIGGS TAYLOR

Lehi Centennial History 1850-1950

Mable Briggs Taylor was born in Lehi, May 2, 1892, a daughter of Samuel Briggs and Emma Thomas. She attended public schools in Lehi, graduating from Lehi High School in 1912. She attended the University of Utah, graduating from the normal course in 1913. She taught school in Redmond, Sevier County, one year and two years in Lehi.

On November 1, 1916, she was married to Gerald Taylor in the Salt Lake Temple. From this union three children were born: Howard, Geraldine, and Colleen.

She served as President of the Parent-Teachers' Association for two years 1939-1941, and served as President of the Women's Auxiliary of the Utah Pharmaceutical Association in 1945. She has been a member of the Athenian Club of Lehi for the past thirty years.

Her work in Church organizations is as follows: President of the First Ward Mutual from 1932-1935, Literary leader in Lehi Stake 1939-1942, President of the First Ward Relief Society from 1943-1947, and at present she is manager of the First Ward Choir and also Social Science leader in the stake.